Measures to prevent terrorists from acquiring weapons of mass destruction

The General Assembly,

Deeply concerned by the growing risk of linkages between terrorism and weapons of mass destruction, and in particular by the fact that terrorists may seek to acquire weapons of mass destruction,

Acknowledging the consideration of issues relating to terrorism and weapons of mass destruction by the Advisory Board on Disarmament Matters,[1]

Taking note of resolution GC(46)/RES/13, adopted by the General Conference of the International Atomic Energy Agency at its forty-sixth regular session,[2] and the setting up of an Advisory Group on Nuclear Security in the IAEA to advise the Director General on the Agency's activities relating to nuclear security,

Taking note of the report of the Policy Working Group on the United Nations and Terrorism,[3]

Mindful of the urgent need for addressing this threat to humanity within the United Nations framework and through international cooperation,
